Held in Conjunction with Oregon Ag Fest.
www.cascadellamashow.com

This letter and entry form was revised on 2/14/20. Class lists and numbers remain the same, so please rest assured that if you have already sent us your entries (THANK YOU to all of our early entrants) there is nothing more you need to do.

One of the changes to the updated letter/packet proud to announce that Cascade 2020 has been selected as an ILR Championship show for 2020! What this means for your is EXTRA ILR Points, as well as ribbons and awards for NO extra entry fee!

This April 25th and 26th 2020 we will celebrate the 14th annual Cascade Llama Sale, as well as our 7th annual ILR-SD show. This event is held in conjunction with Oregon Ag Fest, which has over 22,000 people in attendance yearly. This is a great opportunity to promote llamas to potential llama owners and families.

Judges: (updated 2.14.20)

David Ruckman, Ohio - ILR Halter and Performance (perhaps some non-ILR classes)

Venessa Carter, Missouri - ILR Halter, and Western States Futurity (perhaps some non-ILR classes)

Dana Lynch, Washington – NON-ILR Showmanship and Performance

Gogi Villanueva, Oregon – Walking fleece and fleece on

As some of you know Cascade started as an auction, 14 years ago in the hay field of the farm my family was leasing at the time. Over the years it has grown, changed, and evolved to what it is today.

While we are now much more than a sale, we do take pride in the auction portion of the event. For this portion of our event to remain sustainable we must have a certain amount of participation. Currently we have a goal of getting 6 new entries before 3/15, can you help us reach this goal?

It is certainly a fun time to be involved with llamas! Farms are reporting increased prices and many farms are “sold out” or in some cases have a waiting list for their llamas. The last 2 Cascade auctions have had high sellers above $5,000, healthy averages, as well as no “no sales” and only 1 “buy back” per sale the last 2 years.

New for this year: Judges choice will be a new class where judges can highlight some of their favorite animals of the weekend. Judges choice will differ from the “best of show” in that multiple awards will be given to fun new categories that include: best ears, sportsmanship, fiber, flash, and more. As participation continues to increase for new owners we want to recognize special animals (or exhibitors) with unique qualities that make them stand out, even if they may not have placed grand or reserve in their division. Last but not least we will be adding some fun and functional awards for performance (including youth performance) for those exhibitors who work so hard to show us all how fun and functional llamas can be!
